If you arrive early, take advantage of the afternoon to explore the city. Admire the stunning architecture at Senate Square or Uspenski Cathedral, where you'll notice a blend of cultural influences in the design. Next, visit the Old Market Hall, a historic 19th-century market offering a wide range of fresh food and unique souvenirs. Overnight in Helsinki.

The Charms of Swedish Culture

Today is all about exploring Stockholm at your own pace. Start in the Old Town (Gamla Stan), where you'll find the Royal Palace, Parliament, ancient churches, and charming cobblestone streets.

After breakfast, bid farewell to Stockholm and board a train to Copenhagen, Denmark's capital. Once you've settled in, enjoy a stroll through the enchanting Nyhavn district, lined with colorful houses, lively restaurants, and docked boats.

From Nyhavn, explore Copenhagen's other highlights: stroll through narrow streets, browse charming shops, and sample an open-faced sandwich, smørrebrød, at a local eatery. Spend the night in Copenhagen.

It's also possible to fly from Stockholm to Copenhagen instead of taking the train.
