Arrival in Finland

Welcome to Finland! After collecting your luggage and clearing customs, head to the city center of Helsinki. You can take public transport, grab a taxi, or let us arrange a private transfer to your hotel. If your flight arrives early, take the opportunity to explore the city in the afternoon. Admire the stunning architecture at Senate Square or explore the city in the afternoon. Admire the stunning architecture at Senate Square or Uspenski Cathedral, where you'll notice the influence of various cultures in the design. Alternatively, visit the Old Market Hall, a 19th-century marketplace offering everything from fresh local produce to unique souvenirs. Enjoy your overnight stay in Helsinki.

Helsinki

Discover Beautiful Helsinki

Today, continue your exploration of this remarkable city.

Helsinki, a UNESCO City of Design, is home to landmarks that are both visually stunning and rich in historical significance.

Take a stroll to see the Sibelius Monument, Finlandia Hall, and the Finnish Parliament Building, each offering a unique and impressive architectural design. You may be surprised by the distinctiveness of each one.

For a taste of modern Finnish design, consider visiting the Helsinki Opera House, an iconic structure that is truly a masterpiece.

As evening falls, enjoy a meal at one of the many authentic local restaurants, and don't miss the chance to try reindeer!

Spend another night in Helsinki.

Day

Tallinn

Sail to Estonia

Today, embark on a ferry journey across the Baltic Sea to Tallinn, Estonia's vibrant capital. The trip takes just 2 hours, so you'll arrive in no time.

Once you've dropped off your luggage, head out to explore the city.

Make your way to the Upper Town (Toompea), a charming hilltop area filled with colorful buildings, hidden courtyards, and well-preserved city walls.

For a cultural experience, visit the stunning St. Alexander Nevsky Cathedral.

As evening approaches, enjoy a meal at one of the many restaurants in the Old Town (Vanalinn).

Spend the night in Tallinn.

Day

Tallinn

Explore Tallinn & Overnight Cruise to Sweden

Spend the morning exploring a few more sights in Tallinn. Consider visiting the Kadriorg district, known for its expansive park, the elegant Kadriorg Palace, and the Estonian Art Museum. You can also explore the modern areas of the city, such as Freedom Square (Vabaduse Väljak), where you'll get a sense of life during the Soviet era. In the afternoon, board your overnight cruise to Stockholm. Onboard, enjoy a variety of restaurants and cafés, a nightclub, a tax-free shop, and evening entertainment. You'll stay in a cozy cabin with a sea view. Spend the night on the cruise.

Day

Stockholm-Turku Ferry

Arrival in Stockholm

Enjoy a delicious breakfast with a scenic view as you sail through the stunning Stockholm archipelago. After checking into your hotel, head out to explore Stockholm on foot. Take a stroll down Drottninggatan, where you'll find a mix of chain stores and independent boutiques—ideal for picking up a souvenir from your Scandinavian journey. Alternatively, explore the Östermalm district, known for its beautiful architecture, intriguing museums, and tempting dining spots. Choose from one of the city's many restaurants for dinner, then return to your hotel. Spend the night in Stockholm.

Day

Stockholm-Turku Ferry

Discover Swedish Culture

Today, you'll have ample time to explore the heart of Stockholm, a city that's perfect for discovering on foot. Begin by wandering through Gamla Stan, the Old Town, where you'll find the Royal Palace, the national parliament, historic churches, and charming cobblestone streets. After exploring Gamla Stan, take a short ferry ride to the nearby island of Djurgården, a cultural hub with something for everyone. On Djurgården, visit the ABBA Museum, dedicated to Sweden's iconic pop group, or explore the Nordic Museum, the Gröna Lund amusement park, and the Skansen open-air museum. Spend another night in Stockholm.

Copenhagen

Journey from Stockholm to Charming Copenhagen

After breakfast, bid farewell to Stockholm and make your way to Copenhagen, the vibrant capital of Denmark. Head to Stockholm Central Station to catch your train. Once you've checked into your hotel, take a stroll along the picturesque Nyhavn, the city's historic harbour. This lively area is lined with colourful buildings and bustling restaurants, with rows of docked boats adding to the charm. From here, explore Copenhagen's highlights at your leisure. Wander through its narrow streets, browse local shops, and indulge in a traditional smørrebrød, the iconic open-faced Danish sandwich. Spend the night in Copenhagen.

Copenhagen

A Day in the Charming Copenhagen

Today, you have the entire day to discover the captivating streets of Copenhagen. The best way to explore the city is on foot, so begin your day by wandering through the cobblestone streets of the city center. Copenhagen is home to many royal landmarks, including Amalienborg Palace and Christiansborg Palace. Don't miss the iconic Little Mermaid statue by the waterfront. For some shopping, head to Strøget, one of Europe's longest pedestrian streets, and enjoy browsing local boutiques and international stores. Stop by Torvehallerne food hall to indulge in delicious local dishes. In the evening, visit Tivoli Gardens, a historic amusement park. It's the perfect place to admire traditional architecture and enjoy some thrilling carnival rides. Spend another night in Copenhagen.

Set Sail for Norway

In the morning, explore more of Copenhagen. If you haven't had the chance, consider visiting the observatory at The Round Tower. Other must-see sites include the Church of Our Saviour, the beautiful King's Garden, and the grand Rosenborg Castle. Later in the day, it's time to board your DFDS cruise to Oslo. As the ship sails through the Kattegat Strait towards Norway's capital, you can enjoy onboard dining, entertainment, or simply unwind while watching the sunset from the deck. Spend the night aboard the DFDS cruise.
