OVERVIEW

- Saputara being Gujarat's only hill station is equally important for tourists as well as locals, Saputara is located in the heart of Dang district. Located on the second highest plateau of the Sahyadri range, it literally means 'abode of the snake'. Overlooking the lush green valley, this idyllic destination is a good place to relax, go trekking or take a leisurely hill walk. Blessed with exuberant natural beauty, the city has lush forests, gorgeous waterfalls and lush gardens. A breath of fresh air can be the best option in Saputara during monsoons and winters\

- The native people of Saputara are called Dangi or Adivasi. Saputara is a perfect blend of arts and crafts, heritage of local tribes and nature.

- The main attraction of the camp is Gira Waterfall, Trek to Hatgarh and Waghai Botanical Garden is the center of attraction of the camp. Cloud-covered hills, trekking in the cool breeze with splashes of rain, group games with bonfires, paragliding, trekking in gushing springs and hi-rope adventure activities complement your trip.
